“ To Linda and all of Stan's family,
My sincere condolences to all of you, but I will celebrate the fact that I have known this man for over 50 years. His daughter, Linda, is my dearest friend, and I've been blessed to experience the pleasure of Stan's company since the age of 12. Unlike most fathers, he made a point of coming INTO the room when I would go to their home in Potomac to visit Linda; usually by starting with a joke. Boy did he love to laugh. Such a character. He had this odd rule of having you remove your shoes when you come into the house (Linda carries on the tradition). He was very much into photography and converted their downstairs bathroom into a darkroom. I know that's where my own interest in photography started to develop, because Stan took the time to show me how it all worked. I always looked forward to visiting Linda, partly because her parents made you feel so welcome like a part of the family, as well as treating you like an adult. Such a sweet man. We will all miss you, Mr. Kaplan.
Lots of Love,
Marte Bell (Richards)
